Spotlight on our Executive Boxes

NUMBER 17—

ARMITAGE BROTHERS LIMITED

What were the main reasons why Armitage Brothers Ltd., Pet Products Manufacturers, of Colwick, Nottingham decided to be among the first local Companies to reserve a box in the new Executive Stand?

Firstly, Armitages consider that they have an affinity with the Forest Club, because as an independent and innovative Company, they admire the flair of the Clough/Taylor managerial team and try to emulate it in business.

Secondly, like Nottingham Forest, the Armitage Company has a long and proud history. The business was founded in Nottingham in 1775 and the Limited Company was incorporated in 1897. Also in common with Forest, Armitages have achieved much success during the past five years with sales increasing yearly and the number of employees growing from 270 to over 400.

Another reason why Box No. 17 was reserved is that many customers both in the U.K. and overseas (Armitages export to sixty different countries) are greatly interested in the feats of Nottingham Forest and it will foster goodwill to invite customers as guests at games in which they have a particular interest. Additionally, in these days of employee involvement, it is intended to offer seats in the Box as incentive awards to all staff.

Armitages, Manufacturers of Good Boy Choc Drops for Dogs, Katlit, and a complete range of Dog, Cat, Small Animal, and Aquatic Products, are proud to be associated with Nottingham Forest in this venture and hope that the Club's success will continue and add further lustre to our City and to British football.

On Tuesday, 25th September the club was presented with the France Football - Adidas trophy — the European Inter-Club Cup. Isn't it sickening receiving all these trophies? Like John Wayne used to say "The hell it is."

Some weeks ago we were notified that we had won "Le Challenge European" for 1978-79, sponsored jointly by the France Football newspaper and Adidas sports goods firm and an invitation was extended to the Chairman, Manager and captain to receive the award at the Paris Lido.

The trophy is awarded annually for performances throughout the season — not only in national league matches, but also in the various European competitions.

This is the second year in a row that an English club has won the trophy. Last year it was Liverpool who had previously won in 1976 as well. The only other English club to have won it is Arsenal who tied with Ajax in 1971.

The top fourteen places were :-

	Points
Nottingham Forest	27
Ajax	21
Strasbourg	17
Servette	17
Liverpool	17
Rangers	17
Barcelona	16
West Bromwich Albion	16
Porto	16
Moenchengladbach	15
Anderlecht	15
Beveren	15
Milan AC	15
Benfica	15

Previous winners have been Liverpool, Juventus, Bayern Munich, Feyenoord, Glasgow Celtic, Arsenal, Benfica, Moenchengladbach, and AC Milan so we are in good company.

There were also awards for the top goalscorers and "Soulard d'or" (Golden boot) was won by Kees Kist, of the Dutch club AZ Alkmaar 67 who netted 34 goals. The Soulard d'argent (Silver boot) was awarded to Thomas Mavros, of AEK Athens and Laszic Fekete, of Ujpest Dosza, Budapest who each scored 31 goals. Adidas made all the arrangements for our representatives to go to Paris to receive the award but they could not foresee that we would be drawn away in the League Cup to Middlesbrough who happen to play their mid-week games on a Tuesday.

This immediately eliminated the manager and captain from representing the club so Trevor Francis, who was still nursing his injured groin, and myself deputised. (Don't read that as though Trevor was nursing me!)

We flew by scheduled service from Castle Donington to Orly, Paris but the return journey to Teesside was always going to create a problem and was eventually resolved by the sponsors providing a private plane from Le Bourget.

Our worst fears were realised when the taxi drew up alongside what appeared to be a large model aircraft but was in fact a six-seater twin propeller job.

I should have twigged when the pilot asked Trevor to give him a push-start — and I can tell you it didn't do his groin any good at all —but when he wound down the window, put his arm out and invited the following Tiger Moth to overtake I knew we were in for a rough time. We never did find out what the umbrella was for that the Chairman sat on.

With maps spread out on the vacant co-pilot's seat the four of us headed North (I think). With no automatic pilot there was no chance of a coffee or any "duty frees" on the trip so it was a case of keeping our seat belts fastened and looking straight ahead.

Two hours and forty minutes later, after plodding on at about two hundred miles an hour, we arrived safely at Teesside after agreeing between us that we would have to decline the award next year.

Adidas treated us magnificently throughout our short stay providing entertainment the likes of which few of us had seen before.

I think Frank Worthington (who had been invited as English top goalscorer) and Trevor Francis must have seen the show in America because they left early, but Bob Wilson and a few of the T.V. boys, not forgetting Peter Stewart, the editor of "Shoot" magazine, stuck it out to the bitter end.

There is an interesting story as to how the Adidas name came about. Some years ago two brothers, Rudolph and Adolph Dassler, worked together as shoemakers. They had a violent row and split up vowing never to speak to each other again.

Rudi set up business on one side of the river which flowed through the village and Adi on the other side. Rudi's firm became famous for its "Puma" tradename and brother Adi Dassler traded under the name of Adidas — interesting isn't it?

The Chairman must have been affected by lack of oxygen in our little plane because he was trying to convince me that they had another brother called Bobby. I can't believe that, can you?

BOLTON WANDERERS FOOTBALL CLUB 1979/80

Optimism was the key word when the season began for visiting Bolton Wanderers particularly when the opening week of the season saw them undefeated in three games.

A 1-1 home draw against Aston Villa was followed by a visit to Anfield and yet another draw (0-0), this time with mighty Liverpool. McNab and Whatmore scored the goals that snatched the points from Southampton at Burnden Park;

Another with over the 'ton' in League football is Alan Gowling (121 before this season began); he's had spells with Manchester United, Huddersfield Town, and Newcastle United and, standing over 6ft. tall (as does Worthington) the two are probably the tallest strikers in the section.

For the modern contemporary supporter of football history counts for very little, but it would be a tardy omission to ever forget the large four out of six points represented a good week's work and a fair start.

But football fortune is fickle and, a few days later, in the League Cup Wanderers went out to Southend United on a 1-2 aggregate and, the same week, Brighton inflicted the second defeat that our visitors suffered; this latter result was the Hove club's first-ever win in the First Division.

Manager Ian Greaves makes no secret of the fact that he was far from happy with the results of his team from that point and it is especially disappointing for him — their Board and the fans, to say nothing of the players — to see them near the bottom of the League table as they visit us.

He's in his fifth year at Burnden Park, having joined them in October, 1974 from Huddersfield Town where he had managed the Leeds Road outfit for six seasons.

In 1974/75 Bolton finished a creditable tenth in the Second Division and then, in his first full season (1975/76) they were fourth — just missing promotion.

They finished fourth again the following season, 1976/77, just one point behind us; their total of 51 being good enough to win promotion most years!

However they didn't have to wait too long for success in the shape of elevation to the First Division which they have graced for many years for, in 1977/78, they took the Second Division championship with 58 points.

IAN GREAVES

Last season they ended in 17th place in the premier section with 35 points; it was their poor form away from home that really held them back for when travelling they won only twice. This pattern has continued because they come to our enclosure today looking for their first away win of the season.

One pleasing aspect for them last season was that striker Frank Worthington notched 24 League goals and, with two more in the Football League Cup, this made him the Division's highest scoring marksman.

Worthington, a seasoned player (formerly with Huddersfield Town, Leicester City and a brief spell in American soccer) started the season with a total of 149 goals to his credit in his career.

part that Wanderers have played in the growth of the game.

If their honours board shows they have never won the premier title (3rd in 1891/92, 1920/21, and 1924/25 represents their highest position) they have won the F.A. Cup four times (the last time in 1958) and been defeated finalists on three occasions.

But it is a truism that success today and tomorrow is more important to supporters of a club than what has gone before. Bolton therefore are mindful of their present predicament and manager Greaves is working hard to put things right.

He's one of football's men of principle because he's always made it quite clear that he is not one to bend to unreasonable demands of players. Nor is he prepared to appease supporters by taking hurried and expensive risks on behalf of his club.

Stan Anderson, the former Sunderland player and manager, is the right-hand man to Ian Greaves and their combined expertise and experience is a force behind the scenes.

You are only as good as your players and the results they are able to achieve is a football adage that is sound sense. Bolton must obviously put their game together in the next few months and begin to make an assault and lasting impression in their future games to improve their fortunes.

Everyone will wish them success in their efforts.

PLAYERS

NEIL McNAB

JIM McDONAGH (goalkeeper). Jim must be the bargain of the decade, signing for the club for a £10,000 fee three seasons ago after a month on loan. Six feet tall, he matches his height with ability and has proved to be a very consistent keeper.

TERRY POOLE (goalkeeper). Signed from Huddersfield Town three years ago for a £25,000 fee, Terry has found his opportunities strictly limited by the good form of Jim McDonagh. Before the start of the present season, he had made just one first team appearance in the League Cup at Exeter in 1978.

DAVID BURKE (defender). David emerged onto the first team scene at the start of last season. From Winsford, Cheshire he made his senior debut against Chelsea in the League Cup. Can play at full back or midfield and is a very exciting prospect.

DAVE CLEMENT (defender). An England international full back, he was signed from Queens Park Rangers for a £150,000 fee during the close season. An experienced player, he has added stability to the Wanderers' back line and enjoys joining in attack as well.

PETER NICHOLSON (defender). Was signed for Wanderers from Blackpool for a small fee prior to the 1971-72 season and has proved to be a fantastic bargain. He can play anywhere in defence and adapted in fine style to the demands of the First Division last season.

PAUL JONES (defender). Paul is a tall, quick tackling defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. He is a commanding player in the air as well as on the ground and has a habit of scoring vital goals. Can also play at full back with distinction.

PETER REID (midfield). Joined Bolton from school on Merseyside. Was a regular member of the England Under-21 side which he also skippered. A very talented player who received a severe injury last season.

PROFILE

SAM ALLARDYCE (defender). A central defender born in the Midlands, Sam joined the Wanderers from school. Made his debut in 1975 and is another player who can score goals particularly with his head from set pieces. Had a spell out of the side last season because of injury.

MIKE WALSH (defender). Manchester-born Mike joined the Wanderers from school. He earned a regular place in the side after being groomed for a couple of seasons and is equally proficient in the middle of the defence, at full back, or in midfield.

NEIL McNAB (midfield). Joined the Wanderers from Spurs last season for a £250,000 fee. A willing worker, he is a fine passer of the ball and enjoys himself in the thick of the action.

LEN CANTELLO (midfield). Len cost the Wanderers a record £350,000 fee when signed from West Bromwich Albion in the close season. He is the sort of midfield player who delights in stamping his authority on a game. Always looking for a chance to attack he is an exciting player with an eye for seeing an unexpected opening.

WILLIE MORGAN (winger). Started his career with Burnley, then moved to Manchester United for a big fee. Returned to Burnley and was signed by the Wanderers four seasons ago on a free transfer. A Scottish international, Willie spent the summer playing in American football.

NEIL WHATMORE (striker). A strong attacker with a flair for scoring goals. Was a prolific scorer in the Second Division, but found his appearances limited last season. Can also play in midfield with good effect.

FRANK WORTHINGTON (striker). A colourful character who makes a big impact wherever he plays. Signed for the Wanderers for a £90,000 fee from Leicester City in October, 1977 after a spell on loan. An England international, Frank was the club's and Division leading scorer last season and, like Morgan, spent the summer playing in America.

CHRIS THOMPSON (striker). A speedy attacker with plenty of skill, Chris joined the Wanderers from school. He became an apprentice and then went on to sign full professional forms in July, 1977. Has represented England at Youth level.

Manchester City v. Forest

"Meanwhile City's efforts from way out had been made to look better by Shilton, flashy as ever, who made unnecessary dives."

Tony Stevens, "Sunday Telegraph."

"But Forest showed their mettle as Europe's No. 1 side by maintaining their challenge right to the last gasp and every heart was pounding in the dying minutes when Garry Birtles, Tony Woodcock, and then Trevor Francis came within a fingertip of an upright of equalising." Richard Bott, "Sunday Express."

Kenny Burns regained the club's Golf Championship trophy at Wollaton Park a week last Sunday when he scored 36 points (off 14 handicap) in a Stableford competition. He compiled 21 points for the first nine holes despite starting with a "seven" at the always difficult first hole.

Notts Captain Peter Shaw returned a wonderful two under par 69 to claim the Forest trophy.

Our thanks to sponsors WASS, Norwest Holst, and Arriba club and to Crown House Engineering Ltd., Webb Corbett Ltd., Kingfisher Restaurant, and Mr. Ron Hume who generously donated prizes.

The day was a great success with the Wollaton Park course proving a fairly severe test off the competition tees.

Other prize winners were D. Thorburn, F. Leek, J. Hodgkinson, J. Noble, R. Oakley,

It is appropriate that on the day of this year's "Forest Bowl" final we commence a series of articles introducing our new apprentices with young Calvin Plummer because he was first spotted playing in this very tournament two years ago, and is the first apprentice to have done so.

Liam O'Kane went to watch Claremont Comprehensive School and was impressed with Calvin who was playing in midfield and no time was lost in signing the lad on Associated Schoolboy forms. The Nottingham Schools F.A. had already recognised that the lad had ability, having selected him to play at both under-12 and under-15 level. He also played for Hyson Green Boys' Club.

He was immediately recruited into our "B" team under the guidance of Graham Cardell and Trevor Patterson and also made a few appearances in our Midland Intermediate League side last season.

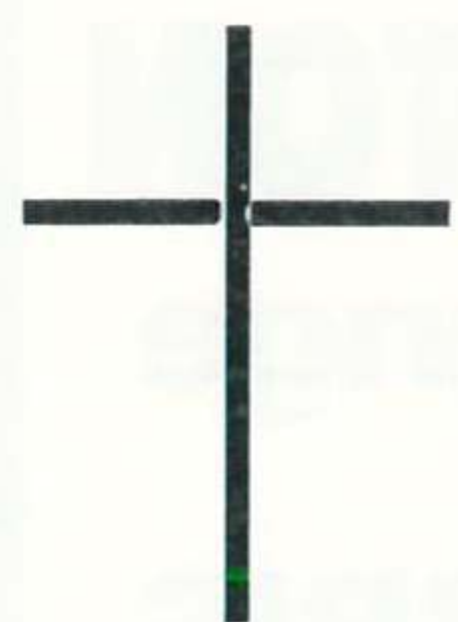

Having joined us full time in July he has progressed sufficiently to justify a place in our Central League side not as a midfield player but on the wing where his pace can be used to advantage. Indeed his progress has been such that Trevor Francis nominated him as "man of the match" in the recent game versus Liverpool Reserves. A judgment with which our regular Reserve team supporters will no doubt concur.

Liam is quite excited about the lad's prospects who, with his natural ability and ball control, should make further progress.

A cousin of Notts County's Tristan Benjamin, young Calvin obviously has football in his blood. He tells us that he enjoys table tennis and that Mrs. Olive Alderson, the apprentices' landlady, will find her cooking under close scrutiny because he is attending classes in day release training to be a chef.

We all hope that it will be entertainment and not food that he will be serving up in a few years.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Mr. Fred Raynor, of Hucknall.

Fred had been associated with the club for many years and, in his capacity as dressing room attendant, had become well known to players and officials of many Football League sides.

He will be sadly missed by all his friends at the City Ground, and our sincere condolences are extended to his family on their sad loss.

Our apologies are due

I was very pleased to see in recent issues of the "Review" the articles written by Dave Sterry, Margaret Leyden, and Richard Patching. The pleasure came from the fact that these were all items which originally appeared in the last edition of the Newsletter of the London and Southern Counties' Branch of the Supporters' Club of which I am the Editor.

However, my pleasure was diminished because the source of your material was not acknowledged in the programme. Whilst it is a compliment to all concerned to see our efforts reproduced, a mention for the Newsletter would have been appreciated.

RICHARD KIRK,

Pen Pal Wanted

I would be grateful if you would put my name in your programme as I am in search of a pen-pal boy or girl around the age of 15.

My hobbies include playing soccer, tennis and most other games. I like all kinds of pop and new wave music.

My name is Billy Sherlock and I am a 15 year old boy (30.12.63).

Devastating Display at The Hawthorns

I simply had to write to you. Firstly let me explain the team I support (Stoke City) were playing too far away to watch them. So I ended up at West Bromwich due to the fact that a friend I work with, who supports West Brom, invited me to come to the match.

I moved down to England from Scotland ten years ago and I never miss a Saturday match, somewhere. Never since I've been down here have I seen a more devastating performance as I witnessed on Saturday by your team, the most brilliant display I have seen in years. I really envy the Forest fans. I will carry on watching Stoke but a certain degree of shine has been knocked off for me.

I can't find words to express the enjoyment the performance gave me on Saturday.

I know running a successful side takes up all your time. You may not have time to read this but maybe somebody with the club will, I simply had to tell somebody connected with your club the enjoyment I got on a sunny afternoon in the Midlands.

Thank you so much for your invaluable fund-raising activities which helped to send our son Michael to America.

Please pass on our personal thanks to Brian Clough, Peter Taylor, and all other individuals connected in helping to try and save Michael's life.

Ground Tour Appreciated

Thank you for arranging the trip to the Nottingham Forest F.C. We enjoyed ourselves very much. I hope you did as well in the game as our netball team, the score was 17-1 to us.

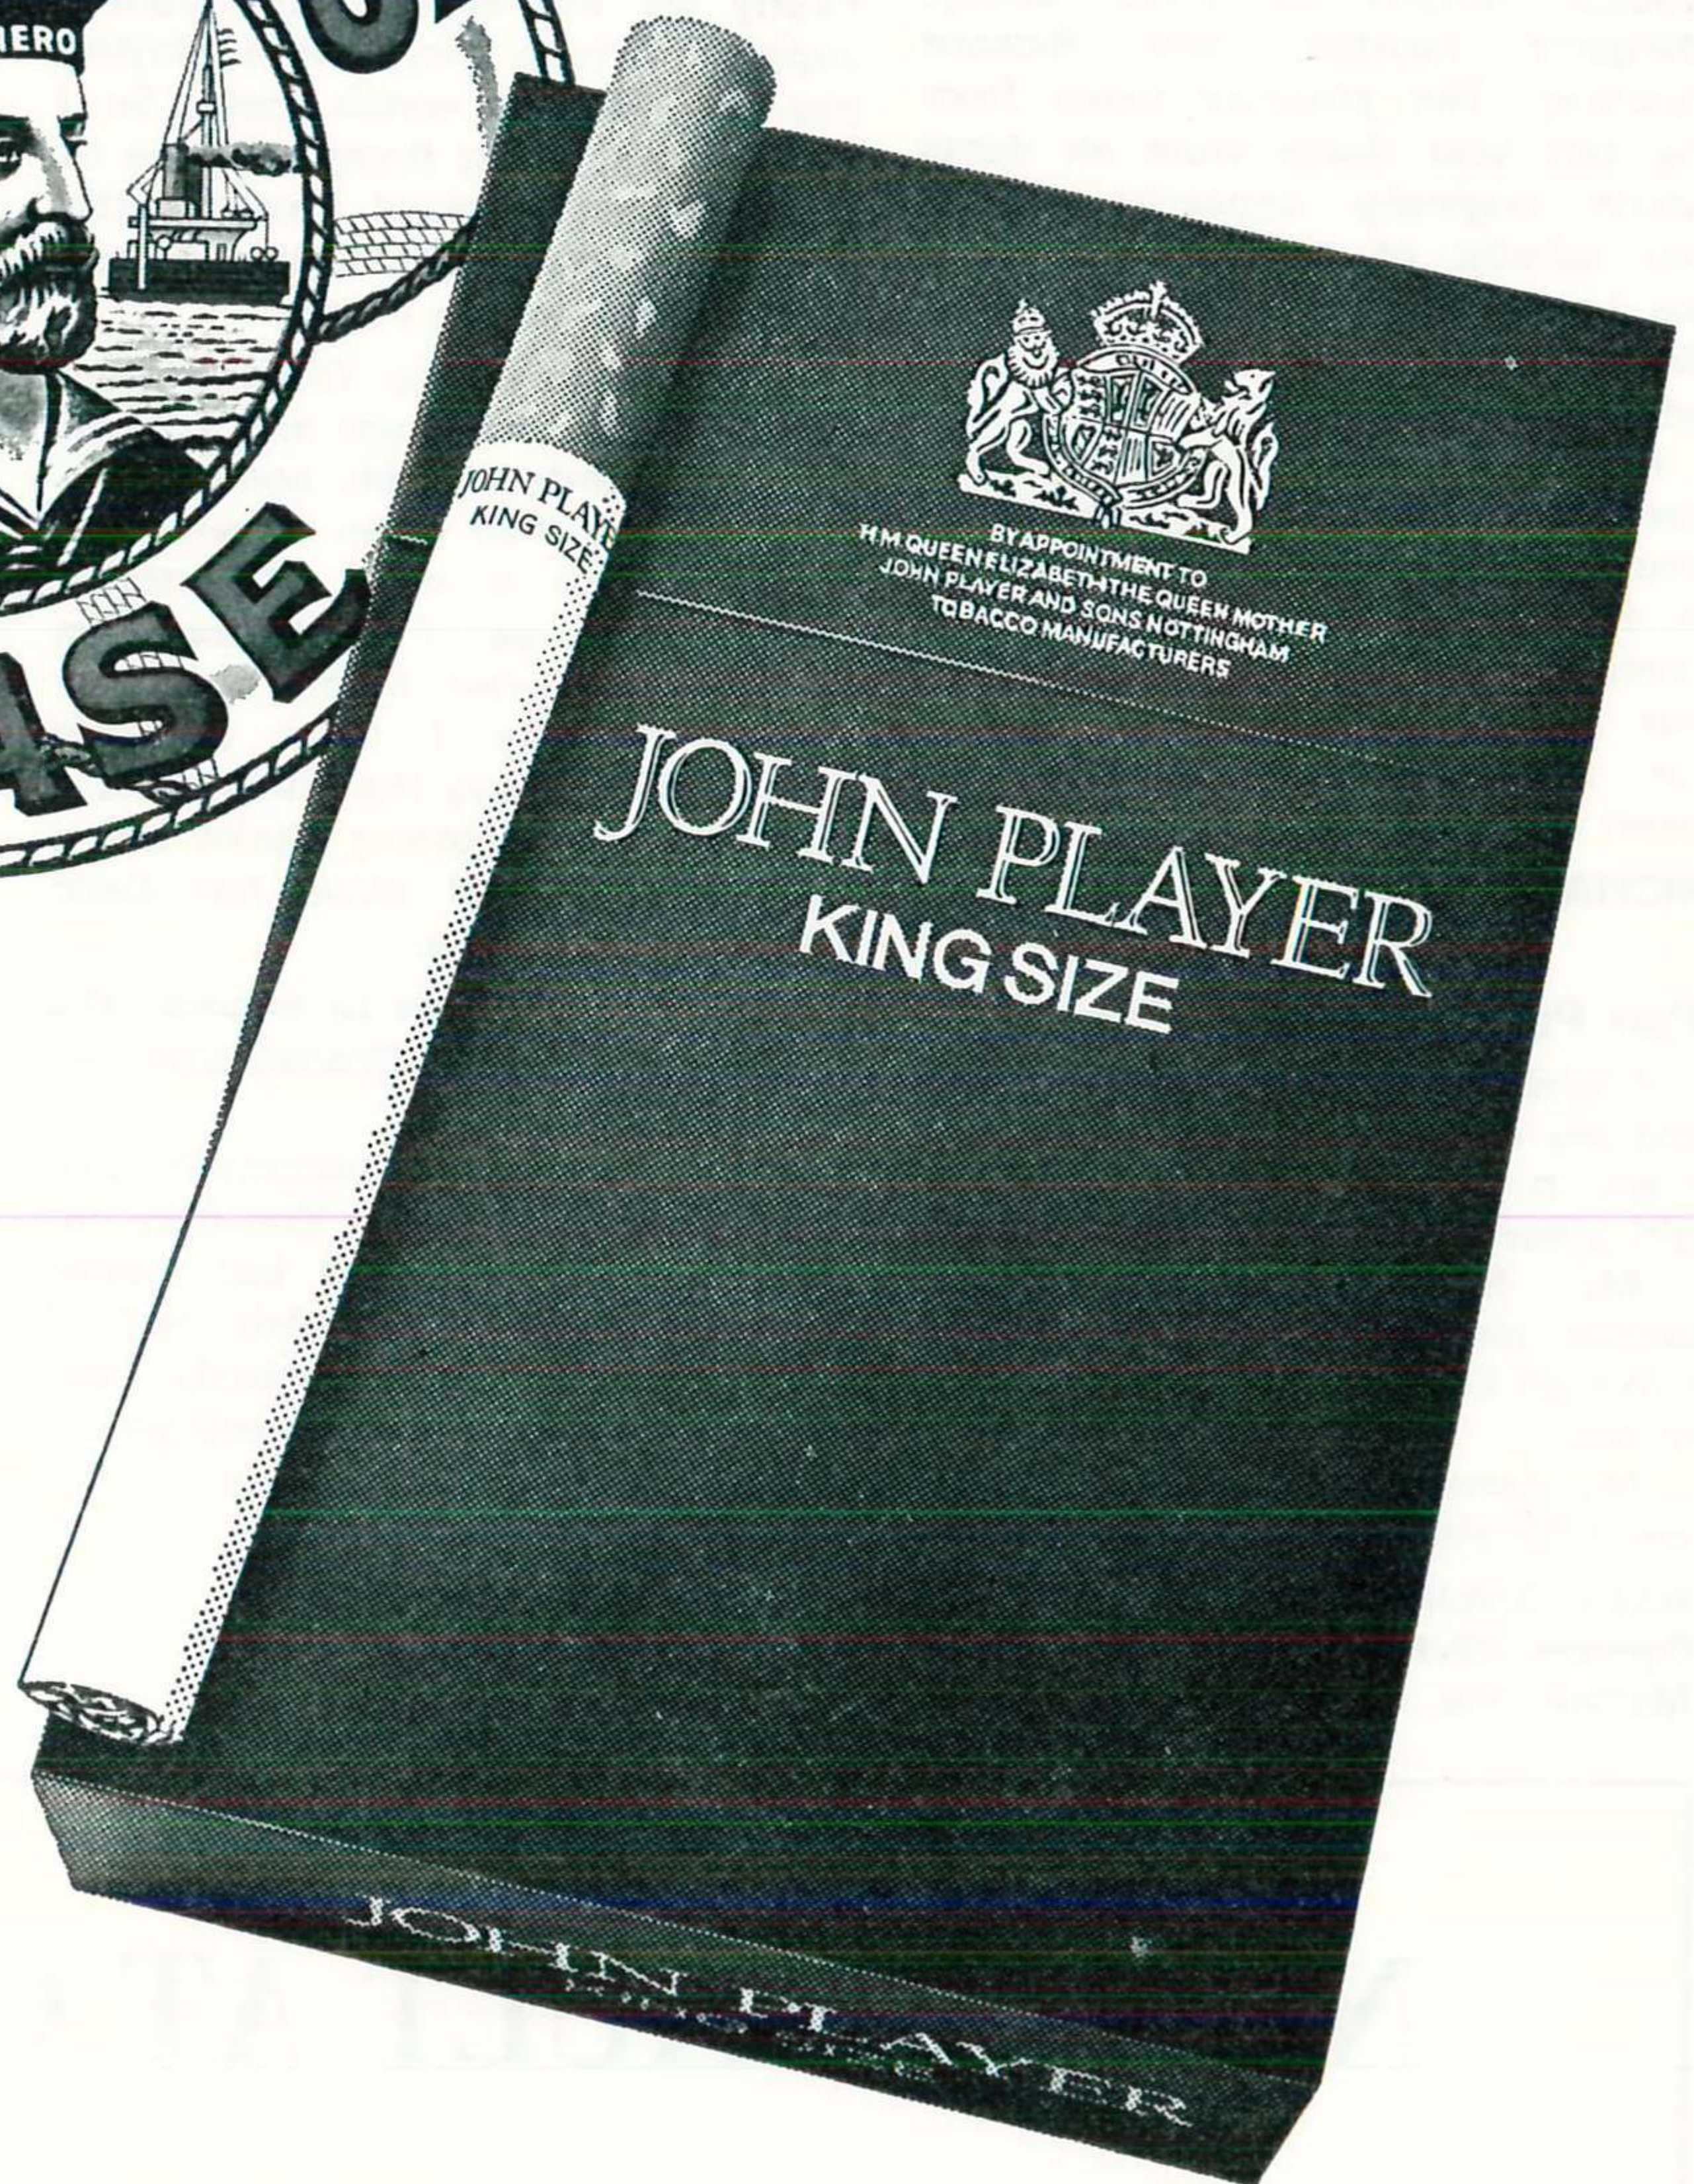

I am sorry to see all the damage in your office. I hope you catch the thieves soon. Thank you for giving Carol permission to show us all around. I liked looking in the cabinets where the presents were from the visiting teams. I liked the eagle with two heads best from AEK Athens.

Knights of the (Early) Bath

By Peter Tozer

PART 1

For the benefit and guidance of the younger element, the more impressionable, and those who have recently clambered aboard the Forest band-wagon let me point out that footballers aren't always knights in shining armour. The seamy side of the game is exposed occasionally — but not too often; the might of the FA disciplinary board keeps things under control. Let's take a rather light-hearted look at a few "incidents" — which I'm sure many of you will remember.

Just before World War Two George Pritty was sent off in a league match and began an era that lasted all but thirty years. During this period Forest could certainly admit to possessing their fair share of "hard men", Syd Ottewell, Ted Blagg, Bob McCall, and so on, but these worthies to their credit never went too far and even the craggy Joe Wilson served his time with no blemishes — (mind you, I remember the odd occasion ...).

By the New Year of 1964 four clubs could boast of having no player dismissed since the war; Forest, Tottenham, Wolves, and Brentford. I have no record of who won this little affair but Forest must have been mighty close.

The only dismissal I can discover in the fifties at the City Ground was that of the Danish amateur international Jensen for a foul on Tommy Capel. This was on 12th April 1952.

SECONDS OUT, ROUND ONE

Just over ten years later in September 1962, Derek Dougan, in the Aston Villa colours, let himself and his club down badly at the City

DEREK DOUGAN

Ground — and after only 36 minutes! Dougan had managed to cram quite a lot into those 36 minutes including a kicking session with Joe Wilson (that should have been worth seeing — come to think of it, it was — I was there), a booking for answering the referee back, and finally, after long-suffering Peter Grummitt had received an accidental kick on the head from an enthusiastic challenge by Ron Wylie, Derek Dougan waded in with the whistle already blown. Mr. J. Batty, of Helsby, was the official who kindly pointed out the most direct route to the dressing room (not the prettiest, mind you, but the most direct).

The next contestant was "slim Jim Baxter" who, during a City Ground encounter in December 1965 incurred the wrath of Mr. Parkinson, of Blackburn by hitting Sammy Chapman with a beautifully executed punch that came straight from the boxing manual. They say that this punch resulted in Baxter appearing fourth in the world lightweight ratings in "The Ring" for December 1965.

Although Sam was still on his feet he was decidedly groggy and would never have beaten the count had not the ref. stopped the contest. Baxter was in the Sunderland colours at the time and the offence was committed under the ref's nose, so to speak. Sammy admitted afterwards that the pair of them had been "having a go" prior to the offence but the incident enraptured lovers of the noble art — Sammy's look of patient suffering and deep hurt as his protagonist departed is a memory I still cherish.

Then came a lull in hostilities until 1967 — 14th January to be exact. During a tempestuous affair with Leeds United the ire of Billy Bremner was aroused — a terrible sight — it having started with a foul on Barry Lyons (which received a booking) followed by a boot and fist goal-mouth melee better imagined than described, and as the receding tide leaves an object on the beach so the receding players left Billy Bremner writhing just outside the penalty area, felled by player or players unknown.
